Competition Basics:

Figures

- ▶ All Novice, Intermediate and 12 & Under Swimmers perform a total of four figures in front of a panel of judges. 13-15 Age group swimmers perform two.
- ▶ Swimmers wear black suits, white caps, goggles, and a nose clip
- ▶ Each figure receives a score between 0 and 10, with tenths of points
- ▶ Judges look for design (proper body positions and transitions) and control (extension, height, stability, and uniform motion)
- ▶ Figures are generally performed in a stationary position with no “traveling”
- ▶ 50% of the figure score will be added to the routine score for the final score

Routines

- ▶ There are six free routine events: solo, duet, trio (novice and intermediate level only), team, and combination and acrobatic
- ▶ The length of the routine varies based on level and age group
- ▶ Routines receive a score of 0 - 10, with quarter increments for difficulty, execution, and artistic impression
- ▶ Novice and Intermediate routines are technical routines with required technical elements
- ▶ Swimmers wear routine suits and headpieces, Knox their hair, and wear makeup. They do not wear goggles.
- ▶ Junior and Senior Swimmers can also compete Technical Routines. This is a separate event this year. Categories include: Solo, Duet, and Team

Meet Etiquette:

- ▶ Swimmers and spectators remain quiet
- ▶ No one is allowed near the swimmers, judges, or scoring tables
- ▶ Parents, please video and/or photograph swimmers from the stands
- ▶ Only officials and workers should be walking around the competitive area during figures
- ▶ Pick up belongings and trash in team area
- ▶ Say “Thank you” to the volunteers, coaches, and officials that helped at the meet

Routines

- ▶ Please remain quiet after the referee blows the whistle so swimmers can hear the start of their music
- ▶ Once the swimmers are in the water, you can (and are encouraged to) clap and cheer
- ▶ Only officials and workers should be walking around the competitive area during a routine
- ▶ Please try and stay for awards
- ▶ Exhibit good sportsmanship and clap for all swimmers
